Part One: Changing Global Realities
In our lifetime, the world and Christ’s church have changed dramatically. The change in the global church is what historian Philip Jenkins describes as “one of the most transforming moments in the history of religion worldwide.” In this opening session we explore these changes and their impact on our missions strategy and practices.

Part Two: Changing Missions Strategy
In Part Two we explore three responses to changing global realities and consider practical applications.

- “Yes...And” Missions: Complementing current approaches
- Media to Movements
- The Platform Revolution in Missions: Connecting Everyone to Everywhere on God’s Mission

All sessions are discussion-oriented and designed to catalyze healthy dialogue and personal application. A light dinner will be provided. Please RSVP at www.peninsulabible.org/register.
